Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed April 06, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The new limitation entered in claim 1 ("an injection tube having a small diameter") has been given patentable weight. However, the rest of the limitations have been considered but they have not been given patentable weight. Expressions relating the apparatus to contents thereof during an intended operation are of no significance in determining patentability of the apparatus claim. Ex parte Thibault, 164 USPQ 666, 667 (Bd. App. 1969).

In order to be given patentable weight, a functional recitation must be supported by recitation in the claim of sufficient structure to warrant the presence of the functional language. In re Fuller, 1929 C.D. 172; 388 O.G. 279.

The Belef et al reference clearly discloses an injection tube (16) having a small diameter (diameter of internal conduit 34).

Additionally, the Examiner disagrees with the Applicant's representative point out view regarding the use of tissue promoting material. The Belef et al reference clearly discloses in paragraph 61 growth factors and extracellular matrix materials that promote the growth of tissue materials.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1, 2, 4, 8, 16, 17, 19, 23-31 and 33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Belef et al US Pub. 2002/0147496.

Belef et al discloses a system comprising an injection tube (14) having a diameter similar to the partially excavated cavity (96), a volume of tissue promoting material ( $\pi$  61) and an insertion device coupled to the injection tube (see  $\pi$  62 & 64).

Regarding claims 2 and 8, see paragraph 65.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
